SERVICE TO ISLAM

The Selection Committee of The King Faisal International Prize for Service to Islam has awarded the 1995 Prize to:

HIS EMINENCE SHEIKH GAD AL-HAQ ALI GAD AL-HAQ

Sheikh Gad Al-Haq (Egypt) is the Grand Imam of the Al Azhar, President of the International Islamic Council for Daawa and Relief, and former Minister of Endowments, for the Arab Republic of Egypt. He has been awarded The King Faisal International Prize for Service to Islam in recognition of his distinguished services to Muslims. This is particularly highlighted by his continuous plea for brotherly ties between Muslim communities throughout the world, and his relentless efforts to improve the spiritual, intellectual and material conditions of Muslim minorities in non-Muslim countries. Sheikh Gad Al-Haq has played a leading role in expanding and disseminating religious knowledge through the establishment of Islamic research institutions, colleges, and Daawa centres both nationally and internationally.
