PRESS RELEASE
WINNERS ANNOUNCED
2013/1434H KING FAISAL INTERNATIONAL PRIZE
FOR SERVICE TO ISLAM

Riyadh, Monday 16 Rabi I 1434H occurring 28 January 2013G.
HRH Prince Khalid Alfaisal, Director of The King Faisal Foundation, tonight announced the winners of the King Faisal International Prize.

The King Faisal International Prize for Service to Islam for the year 1434H - 2013G has been awarded to:

Shaikh
RAI'D SALAH MAHAGNA (Occupied Palestine)
Chairman of the Supreme Council for Islamic Call, Chairman of the Islamic Movement in Palestine and Chairman of Al-Aqsa Foundation for the Rehabilitation of Revered Islamic Places

In recognition of his following services to Islam:

1. Being a preeminent founding member of the Islamic Movement in occupied Palestinian territories in 1948.
2. Pursuing distinctive reforms and social services during his chairmanship of the Islamic Movement between 1996-2001 G.
3. Serving as Chairman of Al-Aqsa Foundation for the Refurbishment of Revered Islamic Places and Chairman of the Humanitarian Relief Organization in Occupied Palestine.
4. Being one the pioneers who have led many projects in Al-Aqsa
Mosque, in collaboration with the Islamic Endowment Organization in Al-Quds and the Committee for the conservation of the revered Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock.
5. Being the first to discover the tunnel dug under Al-Aqsa Mosque by the occupiers.
6. Serving his countrymen by working and succeeding, together with Al-Rawha Peoples Committee, in preventing the confiscation of Al
Rawha land in 1998G
7. Organizing regular events titled "Al-Aqsa is in Danger" which attract thousands of Palestinians in the occupied territories and help boost their moral.
Notes to Editors:

- Over the past 35 years, a total of 41 individuals or institutions from 21 different countries have been recognized by the King Faisal International Prize for Service to Islam.

- The deadline for all nominations is Wednesday 21 JUMADA II 1434H occurring 1 May 2013G.